

Medium Density Fiberboard (MDF)

Features:

Made of wood fibers and synthetic resin binders

Uniform density and Smooth surface suitable for various applications

Excellent craftsmanship by using high-quality raw materials and employing advanced production techniques

Available with customized materials and surface finishes: wood grain, texture, and colors, to meet their specific design requirements